

Humanist Movement

Among the world eruption of juvenile phenomena during the decade of the 60s, a small group was formed in Argentina and began to develop around Mario Rodriguez Cobos, Silo. Shortly in the decade of the 80s, this Movement gives birth to political parties that begin to interconnect forming Regionals and the International Humanist.

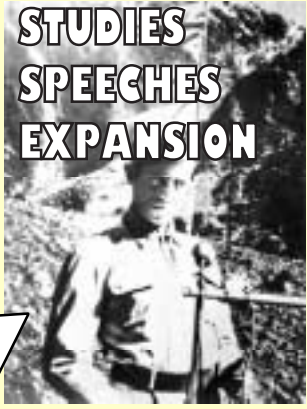

At present, it is getting ready to carry out a complete evaluation of everything performed along all these years, and will define the strategy for the next century.
